

Dear FCC:

You are a worthless and treasonous urn of plague ==> IF this is permitted to occur without immediate equal time provided to Kerry to respond to the asinine points that Sinclair is wishing to misrepresent.

The scum at Sinclair can also pay $1 million per minute of airtime they devote to partisan material. Go ask the Supreme Court, they will identify the stench behind this: it is obscene to even propose such an idea in a republic. This mandate of Sinclair's is more objectionable than presenting a half hour orgy with Janet Jackson and Howard Stern. Is there one brain cell at FCC? Why has no statement or FCC decree been delivered to the journalists and to the nation? What lame excuse does the agency have to be derelict in communication with its own constituents and all US citizens?

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. But when large companies control the airwaves, we get more of what's good for the bottom line and less of what we need for our democracy. Instead of something produced at "News Central" far away, it's more important that we see real people from our own communities and more substantive news about issues that matter.

Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license renewal process needs to involve more than a returned postcard. Thank You.
